"Riding awareness - K syndrome" - Installation 220x330x16cm - acrylic on canvas - 2013

Katrin Fridriks' works will include perspective studies of her colorful Crayons, Silver Awareness & Full Macro series, combining colorimetric & drippings-based research & construction of pictorial spaces. Her compositions exclusively displayed for India Art Fair explore dimensional aspects of her abstract paintings. In the vein of the "Riding Awareness – Messenger Molecule" installation, she plays with the size, thickness and format of the canvases, carefully assembled together so as to bring other & new perspectives. The architectural dimensions of her abstract paintings highlights Fridriks' interest for large-scale works. In parallel & inherent to this process, her drippings enlargement continues, from thin swings, one-gesture bigger splashes to the whole canvas covering.

Creating a kind of a zoom effect referring to the aesthetics of macrophotography, this is an innovative technical challenge to follow for the conceptual painter.
